CEREMONY

The Parlour

Say 'hello' to The Parlour, the original sitting room of Dr. John Thomson's private home. This Art Deco-inspired space, with its herringbone oak floors, floor-to-ceiling windows, and grand granite fireplace, blends the comfort of home with the sophistication of an artistic hospitality venue.

Inclusions

- One and a half hour use of the event space
- Chairs on each side of an aisle (maximum 30 chairs)
- Dressed registry table with linen and 2 chairs
- In-house background music

The Charleston Room

Step into a space that embodies the lively spirit of the 1920s dance craze. The Charleston Room, a state-of-the-art venue that harmonises with the hotel's unique theming. As tall heritage windows filter natural light during the day and city lights at night, you'll find inspiration in every corner.

Inclusions

- One and a half hour use of the event space
- Chairs on each side of an aisle (maximum 80 chairs)
- Dressed registry table with linen and 2 chairs
- AV/audio included

RECEPTION

The Charleston Room

The Charleston Room was named after the dance, the Charleston Rhythm. Popularised in mainstream dance music in the United States by 1923 tune called “The Charleston”, this movement became one of the most popular hits of the decade. Whatever the size or style of your wedding, The Charleston Room can divide and conquer to suit your needs.
